All-Ranks Faculty Position – GT/Emory BME

https://hr.gatech.edu/careers/

Job ID: 289792

The Wallace H. Coulter Department of Biomedical Engineering (https://bme.gatech.edu/bme/) at the Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta, Georgia invites applications for a faculty position in Biomedical Engineering. Applicants will be considered at all ranks. This search is open to all research areas in the field of Biomedical Engineering. Candidates are expected to demonstrate an exceptional commitment to the teaching and mentoring of students.

Georgia Tech prides itself on its technological resources, collaborations, high-quality student body, and its commitment to building an outstanding and diverse community of learning, discovery, and creation. We strongly encourage applicants whose values align with our institutional values, as outlined in our Strategic Plan. These values include academic excellence, diversity of thought and experience, inquiry and innovation, collaboration and community, and ethical behavior and stewardship. Georgia Tech has policies to promote a healthy work-life balance and is aware that attracting faculty may require meeting the needs of two careers.

Responsibilities: Successful candidates will be expected to develop a vibrant externally-funded research program, teach undergraduate and graduate level core and elective courses, and should have a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and mentorship.

Applications will be considered beginning November 15, 2025, but the search will continue until the positions are filled.

Required Documents

Applicants should submit 1) a letter of application, 2) curriculum vitae, 3) a statement of research interests, 4) a description of teaching interests, 5) A statement that in two pages or less outlines how the applicant's professional and academic experiences have prepared them to support and apply Georgia Tech's mission and values (listed below), and 6) the names and contact information for at least three references. Application materials should be submitted as .PDF files

Contact Information: Requests for information may be directed to BMEchair@gatech.edu.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. The Institute is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful environment for all. To that end, and in accordance with federal and state law, Board of Regents policy, and Institute policy, Georgia Tech provides equal opportunity to all faculty, staff, students, and all other members of the Georgia Tech community, including applicants for admission and/or employment, contractors, volunteers, and participants in institutional programs, activities, or services. Georgia Tech complies with all applicable laws and regulations governing equal opportunity in the workplace and in educational activities.

Equal opportunity and decisions based on merit are fundamental values of the University System of Georgia (USG) and Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech prohibits discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, on the basis of an individual's race, ethnicity, ancestry, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age, disability, genetics, or veteran status in its programs, activities, employment, and admissions. Further, Georgia Tech prohibits citizenship status, immigration status, and national origin discrimination in hiring, firing, and recruitment, except where such restrictions are required in order to comply with law, regulation, executive order, or Attorney General directive, or where they are required by Federal, State, or local government contract.